

Chinese After-School care

Would you like your children to learn Chinese language and culture? If so, I encourage you to participate in the Chinese After-School care.

Chinese After-School care at Grahamwood Elementary School is for all students who attend the school. The purpose of this language program is to help students understand and enjoy the Chinese language by speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Students will also learn about Chinese customs and history.

In this program students will also be asked to finish homework (whatever the school's homework or the homework which the parents give). After everyone finishes their work, we will do some indoor or outdoor activities if possible.

There will be students with different levels of proficiency at the Chinese class. Chinese teacher Mrs. Wang will divide them into different groups and teach them in different ways based on their current level of proficiency.

Snacks are provided in Chinese afterschool care.
